Meet Andrew Quiroz

Construction Executive, Advisor, & Talent Strategist

With more than 40 years of experience in the construction industry, Andrew Quiroz brings unmatched insight, leadership, and technical expertise to his role at Hatteras Capital Advisors. His career journey began at just 15 years old on residential job sites in Kansas City's union masonry trades, laying the foundation for what would become a dynamic career spanning coast to coast.

From his early work on high-profile New York City landmarks like Rockefeller Center and Chase Manhattan Plaza, to building and scaling his own multimillion-dollar general contracting firm, Andrew has held leadership roles across nearly every facet of the construction industry. His portfolio includes complex commercial, government, healthcare, higher education, and historic preservation projects—each executed with a deep commitment to precision and integrity.

Today, as part of Hatteras Capital Advisors, Andrew blends his construction expertise with a passion for Business Management and consulting. He is uniquely positioned to advise both clients and candidates, drawing from decades of lessons learned to deliver exceptional matches and growth strategies that stand the test of time.

Career Highlights

Andrew has managed or overseen some of the most iconic and sensitive projects in the U.S., including:

- The Vice President's Residence
- The Marine One Helicopter Facility
- The Ellis Island Immigration Building Restoration
- The Statue of Liberty Beach Armoring Project
- The Netherlands Carilion Bell Tower

As the owner and president of his own firm, he expanded operations from the Southeast into the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast, growing the company to over $60 million in annual revenue. His operational leadership, strategic foresight, and client-first mentality positioned the business as a preferred partner for federal and institutional clients nationwide.

Andrew's Passion & Approach

Andrew finds deep satisfaction in helping companies grow stronger and more resilient through strategic hiring and operational alignment. He is driven by a desire to pass on his experience, mentor rising leaders, and help others avoid costly missteps.

Clients appreciate his calm, strategic approach and ability to navigate complex challenges with confidence. With a reputation for honesty, humor, and high standards, Andrew is both a trusted advisor and a steady leader in fast-paced environments.
