Director of Placement | Manufacturing, Construction & Engineering
Hatteras Capital Advisors

Meet Georgette Sandifer

Georgette Sandifer is the Director of Placement with Hatteras Capital Advisors specializing in the recruitment of top talent within the Manufacturing, Construction, and Engineering industries. Through her extensive network and relationship driven approach, she helps clients identify, attract, and retain high performing professionals who make an immediate impact on their organizations.

Born and raised in Columbia, South Carolina, Georgette is a proud graduate of the University of South Carolina and remains an avid Gamecock fan. Her deep roots throughout the Southeast, combined with a nationwide network of industry professionals, have enabled her to build lasting relationships with both clients and candidates across the country.

Georgette has earned a reputation for professionalism, integrity, and delivering results. Throughout her recruiting career, she has been recognized on multiple occasions by one of North America's largest recruiter networks for both her placement success and unwavering commitment to ethical recruiting practices. In fact, she was once described as:

"There is perhaps nobody who exemplifies Top Echelon Network membership better than Georgette Sandifer of Hatteras Capital Advisors."

Prior to joining Hatteras Capital Advisors, Georgette spent more than 20 years in corporate travel services. During that time, she served in customer service leadership, corporate travel management, and national training roles while developing relationships with major manufacturers and corporate clients throughout the United States. Her background in customer service, relationship management, and problem solving laid the foundation for a highly successful transition into executive recruiting.

Georgette entered the recruiting industry in 1999 and quickly established herself as a trusted advisor to both clients and candidates. For more than two decades, she has successfully partnered with employers, professionals, and recruiting teams nationwide, helping organizations secure critical talent while guiding candidates through important career decisions.

Her ability to listen, understand organizational needs, and build meaningful relationships has been the cornerstone of her success. Georgette applies the same high standards of service, communication, and integrity to every search engagement, earning the trust of clients and candidates alike.

Georgette's Commitment

Georgette is passionate about connecting exceptional people with exceptional opportunities. She believes successful recruiting is built on honesty, transparency, and long term relationships. Whether partnering with a client on a critical hire or helping a candidate navigate their next career move, her focus remains the same: delivering value, building trust, and creating successful outcomes for everyone involved.

At Hatteras Capital Advisors, Georgette supports our mission of empowering careers, elevating talent, and driving growth. Through her expertise in Manufacturing, Construction, and Engineering recruiting, she helps organizations strengthen their teams and professionals advance their careers.
