Meet Tracy Sattler

Tracy Sattler is an Executive Recruiter with Hatteras Capital Advisors, bringing more than 20 years of experience in talent acquisition, human resources, people leadership, manufacturing, and operations.

Throughout her career, Tracy has built a reputation for developing strong relationships with both organizations and professionals. She understands the importance of industry knowledge, qualifications, culture, and long term fit when adding talent to an organization. Her personal, relationship driven approach allows her to understand the needs of the client while also helping candidates identify opportunities where they can grow and succeed.

Before joining Hatteras Capital Advisors, Tracy served as Managing Director of Pine River Recruiting, where she focused on helping companies attract and hire talent while building lasting relationships with clients and candidates. Her professional background also includes serving as a Human Resources Supervisor with PGI, Inc. and nearly 18 years with Milsco Manufacturing in purchasing and inventory planning roles.

Tracy's experience inside manufacturing and human resources gives her a practical understanding of the workforce challenges companies face. She brings that perspective to every search, combining recruiting expertise with firsthand knowledge of operations, employee development, onboarding, and organizational needs.

Tracy earned her Associate's degree in Human Resources and Organizational Leadership from Rasmussen College Wisconsin.

Beyond Recruiting

Outside of her professional life, Tracy is blessed to share life with her husband, and together they have built a loving family with three children and two grandchildren. Family is at the center of her life, and some of her favorite moments are spent creating memories with the people she loves most.

Tracy also has a deep appreciation for travel and enjoys exploring new places, experiencing different cultures, and creating meaningful adventures along the way. She believes in living with gratitude, embracing new opportunities, and making the most of each chapter of life while cherishing the relationships, experiences, and memories that make life so rewarding.
